Pertinent Paragraphs

The Plaza Service corporation, capital $20,000, has been formed by three self-declared spinsters of Montreal. Under the law they are entitled to do anything from publishing a newspaper to building a railroad. What they probably will do is start a matrimonial agency.

We frequently hear tall stories, many of them probably true, of the feats of our canine friends. Taking the prize is the recent narrative of a cat who, not liking the people with whom it was left, covered in a few days the 80 miles that separated it and its owners who were enjoying a vacation.

Ambassador Charles Dawes, guest at a luncheon in London recently, conformed to custom without actually breaking his self-imposed rule of total abstinence from alcoholic beverages. When a huge cup, filled with ale, was passed to him by his neighbor he was supposed to drink to the man on his left. Mr. Dawes turned to him and raised the cup—but no brew passed his lips. Another guest jokingly remarked that he understood Mr. Dawes was going to institute the practice of passing the loving cup among United States senators, the cup to be filled with the "national drink" of America. Not a bad idea at that—especially if we had a few senators we wanted to get rid of.

A San Jose lad has been exonerated from blame in the shooting of another small boy who last week died of a bullet wound in the head. Seeking reality in a perusal of the "Arabian Nights," Robert Jorgenson, 12, felt that the sound of an explosion would give an added thrill. Securing a .22 calibre rifle from his father's den, he pointed it out of the window and pulled the trigger. The wild bullet found a resting place in the head of Emmett Cox, 8. It was a very foolish thing for a 12-year-old boy to do. It was much more foolish on the part of the father to leave a loaded gun where it could be reached by his son.

That's all.

THE FORMATION OF CONSERVAT'N DIST. BEING CONSIDERED

Steps preliminary to calling an election for the formation of the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation district were authorized last Tuesday at a meeting of the board of directors of the Valley Water Conservation association at the chamber of commerce.

Eight men were appointed to form their own committees to circulate petitions in each of the principal rural school districts calling for the election were as follows:

Fred Holthouse, Brawley, Alviso, Midway, Old Jefferson, Milliken, Agnew and Santa Clara; Edward Howes, Union; J. E. Weisendanger, Meridian; Alex Cammerer, Jackson; C. C. Derby and John Fair, McKinley and Evergreen; S. N. Hedegard, Campbell; Lloyd Gardner, Hamilton, and R. P. Van Dorn, Fremont.

The Guild of the Congregational church will hold a thrift sale Wednesday and Thursday afternnons and evenings in the hotel lobby, which has been donated for that purpose through the courtesy of Miss Sadie Maxon.

CHARLES BERRY, 43 YEARS AS S.P. AGENT TO RETIRE AUG. 1

Charles Berry, one of Campbell's pioneers and first and only agent for the Southern Pacific company at this point, will retire from the company's service Aug. 1 after a most faithful and conscientious performance of duty for the past 43 years.

Charley came to Campbell in April, 1886 as the young S. P. agent when but 21 years of age and sold tickets from the small "6x18" depot when the Almaden line was being laid. That building is still doing duty at Castro.

In December, 1890, he was married to Miss Gertrude A. Bell of Portsmouth, N. H., who has many times since been his only assistant at the station. He purchased the first lot sold in the Campbell subdivision, that being the site of the present Kimmel home on South Central. At this time most of the valley was hay and grain fields with but little fruit. F. M. Righter shipped the first fruit from this station, some ten boxes of apricots.

As a bit of comparison, the first month's business was $5.10 for tickets sold as against an average monthly shipment of 25,000,000 tons of gravel and fruits today.

Mr. Berry was elected to the school board at the time of the fight for and against the organization of a high school district and he, winning out, aided in the beginnings of our high school. He served on the board for 18 years. He has always been a worker for the best interests of the community and a member of the board of trade and chamber of commerce. He was also a member of the Countryman's club that sponsored the early beginnings of our present library.

As a member of the Masons and Odd Fellows he has worked with these and other bodies for the promotion of better community life.

Mr. Berry's two sons were born here. Clifford now runs a battery service station in San Jose and Millard is cashier for the Southern Pacific at Redwood City.

As soon as his retirement takes effect, Mr. and Mrs. Berry will go to the coast for a two weeks' vacation, and visit other points on the coast.

Mr. Berry will be succeeded by C. T. Tanner of Soledad who has a record of 28 years service with the S. P. Mr. Tanner has rented the former home of A. Emskamp on Alive avenue and will move his family here the last of the month.

No Casualties At the Sunday Ball Game

A tangle between the Campbell ball team and the Pioneer nine of San Jose on the local diamod Sunday resulted in no serious casualties. Fielder Vaughn, superintendent of Hyde's cannery, suffered a strained ankle in a slide to second on a steal. The score was 6-2 with Campbell on the long end of the tally.

The newly installed officers of the Ada Rebekah lodge occupied their chairs for the first time at the last meeting in the old term last Tuesday. The first meeting of the new term will be held this evening in the I. O. O. F. hall.

Ralph Hyde Secures Licensing Officer

A state traffic officer will be at the offices of the local water company between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. Wednesdays for the purpose of issuing automobile operators' licenses.

The services of the officer were secured through the efforts of Ralph Hyde, manager of the Campbell water company and insurance man, in order that local people can get new licenses without "bucking the line" at the county traffic bureau office in San Jose.

KIWANIS NOTES

Ben Curry, chairman at the Kiwanis luncheon today, read an interesting article on the "longest paved highway, the mainstreet of many cities," the Pacific highway stretching from the Canadian border on the north to the Mexican line on the south. He loves to recall the Tiajuana village.

Roy Archibald told of the organization of the Federal Reserve bank, established to correct errors of small scattered reserve and pooling for mutual benefit. There are 12 central banks with members and associates in all sections aiding in the loan possibilities for seasonal demands.

C. H. Whitman gave a short talk on glass making when the judges called him for time right in the most interesting part.

George Burrow, the other speaker fo rthe hour, asked for postponement and will give his discourse in two weeks. Next Tuesday evening is ladies night and a basket lunch will be served at 6:30. T. A. Cutting is chairman.

Divisional trustee's meeting will be held at Vallejo Aug. 17. Benecia assisting in the entertainment.

THE WATER CONSERVATION ACT OF 1929

Also Known As the Jones Act

The method of conserving water provided for in this act is by percolating or sinking flood waters through gravel beds into the underground reservoir. The act further provides for a district organization to furnish funds and a governing body to do the work. It is proposed to organize such a district in the Santa Clara valley to include the entire valley floor (urban and rural) from the Coyote narrows northward to the Alameda county line on the east side of the bay and Diss road on the west side. The eastern and western boundaries are approximately along 250 to 300 foot elevations above sea level, or including such areas as use water for irrigation.

The Jones act is a general one enabling any section of the state to organize under it and its application to Sata Clara valley is suggested as follows:

1. A petition asking the board of supervisors for an election on the formation of the district must be signed by 500 or more voters residing within the proposed district. The petition describes the boundaries of the district and of the seven divisions which are necessary for electing seven directors. The petition must be published for three weeks prior to the formal hearing by the board of supervisors.

2. The election is called and conducted by the board of supervisors. All persons whose names appear on the register of voters are entitled to vote and a majority vote carries the election.

3. The district is managed by a board of seven directors, one from each of the divisions. They are placed in nomination by petition of ten or more electors and voted for at the organization election. The full term of office of a director is four years and the pay $10 per day for attendance at board meetings and necessary expenses; also not to exceed $10 per day when on official business at order of the board. The directors hold four regular meetings a year.

4. Money is raised by an annual assessment of not more than 15 cents of each $100 of assessed land value only. There is no bond issue. Before Aug. 15 of each year the directors must submit to the board of supervisors an estimate of the amount of money needed. The supervisors levy the assessment, the county tax collector collects it and the county treasurer pays upon warrants of the county auditor drawn upon order of the directors.

5. Since the Jones act is a new law passed by the last legislature it does not become effective until 90 days after the adjournment of that body, which was May 15. Hence Aug. 15 is the earliest date on which legal steps may be taken toward organizing a district.

Carl Field is expecting a visit from his brother, Dr. J. W. Field of McPherson, Kan., about the first of August. Dr. Field is making a tour of several of the western states.

CONGRESSMAN FREE GETS NICE LETTER FROM JOHN TILSON

Congressman A. M. Free of this district is rather proud of a letter which he received a few days ago from John Q. Tilson, majority leader of the house of representatives.

It is the duty of the majority leader to carry out the legislative program of the administration and direct legislation in the house of representatives. Next to the speaker, he is the greatest power in legislative matters in the congress.

The letter of which Congressman Free is so proud, is as follows:

Washington, D. C.
July 4, 1929

The Hon. A. M. Free, M. C.
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Arthur:

I deem it appropriate on this the day we celebrate to affix my John Hancock to a note of appreciation of the fine service and loyal support given so freely by you in helping to carry out the party program thus far during the extra session. You are one of those confidently relied upon by me to make my own work less difficult, and for this I thank you.

Very sincerely your,
John Q. Tilson

Mr. Tilson will be remembered by Californians, as he accompanied President Hoover to California at the time Mr. Hoover came out to deliver his speech of acceptance and resided for several weeks at the Hoover home at Stanford.

Flames Destroy Auto While Owner's Away

Bruce Weaver, who left his car parked under a palm tree on New Jersey avenue late Saturday night while he came to town for some tire repairs, is this week without transportation. Shortly after Mr. Weaver left his car ranchers nearby were awakened by the glow of flames which, on investigation, proved to be coming from the parked car. When the owner returned his automobile was completely consumed. The fire, which was partially covered by insurance, is thought to have been caused by a short circuit.

BAUGHS OF REDLANDS IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Baugh of Redlands, accompanied by two sisters and one brother and a Miss Womack, met with an accident while motoring to the Salinas rodeo Sunday. The car overturned when it tried to scale an embankment about five miles from Salinas. Mrs. Baugh, who was quite seriously injured, was taken to the hospital in Salinas, but was later removed to the county hospital. The rest of the party escaped with a few minor cuts and bruises. Mr. and Mrs. Baugh are workers in the Hyde cannery this summer.

Walter Stray and son George have returned from Grand Rapids, Mich., where they accompanied the remains of Mrs. George Stray who passed away at Ducor recently. George expects to resume his work at that point within the next few days.

THE COURAGE OF PUBLIC SERVANTS

Much has been made of the fact that Alexander Legge gave up a $100,000 a year position as the president of the International Harvester company in order to become the chairman of the federal farm board of President Hoover at a yearly stipend of $12,000.

Naturally this was a very courageous, a very public-spirited act, and we applaud it with the greatest enthusiasm, adding our thanks to the thanks of the nation.

At the same time we want to point out that, to the glory of our nation, the ranks of our public bodies are filled with others no whit less self-sacrificing and courageous.

Men sticking to public offices for years, who would have made fortunes in the business world; men working for the benefit of the country, who curtail the private activities on which they really "cash in."

We applaud their patriotism.

It is one of the greatest traditions of this country —this willingness of comeptent men to subjugate their private interests to the interests of the nation at large.

It is a great and noble tradition that helps every one of us every day of our lives.

REST FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL HAND

The public receptions at the White House, formerly taking place thrice a week, were first reduced to two a week, then to one a week, and now have been abandoned for the rest of the summer.

While we think that every citizen in the land should have an opportunity to meet our president, we cannot help but commend this decision.

So many persons line up before the White House merely out of curiosity, later seeking prestige by speaking of the "public reception" they have attended!

Since former times many additional burdens have been put upon the president, and at the same time the population has increased and the capital been made more accessible by improved transportation. All of which wreaks a dreadful hardship on the hand of the president, which certainly deserves a vacation after being vigorously shaken for so long a period by everyone, nearly, that visited Washington.

Citizens with a special mission must have access to the president. That is democracy. Others who seek prestige by contact with the hand of the president should be limited in their intrusion into his time and their demands upon his strength. That is good sense.

CHARACTER IN HANDWRITING

The style of your handwriting—the size of the letters—the way you cross your t's and dot your i's—may indicate your character. However, the documents to which you put your signature reveal far more.

For example, your signature to a Life Insurance Trust Agreement which protects your insurance money, provides a regular income for your family and extra money for emergencies — reveals firmness, generosity, business judgment and thoughtfulness for those who come after you.

We have prepared an interesting booklet explaining how you can use the Life Insurance Trust to protect your family. Ask at any office for "The Life Insurance Trust—and Its Uses."

Just try these tests!

Two strands of cord exactly the same length. One is Goodyear SUPERTWIST, the other usual standard cord. Tension is applied by these machines.

Snap! the standard cord breaks. SUPERTWIST remains intact.

Let's try it again with fresh strands —same length. Tension is exerted, then relaxed. SUPERTWIST springs back taut like a rubber band. The other cord sags—no elasticity — it's dead.

Goodyear Tires are made of SUPERTWIST.

Supertwist gives and recovers to road shocks, while ordinary cords react as you have seen.

SUPERTWIST is another exclusive feature of Goodyear Tires.

May we make these tests for you and show you why you should INSIST on Goodyears?

"The laborer is Worthy of His hire"

Truer and fairer words were never uttered by man—and it's a pretty well-known fact that the workman usually delivers a class of work commensurate with his wage. When "cut rates" are used as an inducement to draw business you can be pretty nearly sure that you are going to get just about what you pay for. And that holds particularly true in the automobile business.

We, the undersigned automobile repairmen, have been engaged in business for several years, and we enjoy a valuable reputation on our work. We would rather do the job right for a fair price than give it a lick and a promise at "cut rates." Let us give you an estimate on your next repair job.
